The following Addreſs has been preſented to Her Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, and the Clergy of the Diocеſe of Salisbury.

May it pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE the Biſhop, the Dean and Chapter, together with the Clergy of the Diocеſe of Salisbury, are deeply ſenſible of God's great Goodneſs to this Church, in ſetting over us a Queen, who gives ſuch an Eminent Example of Virtue and Religion to all Her Subjects, and who is pleaſed to expreſs on all Occaſions ſo True a Zeal for this Eſta-bliſhed Church, of which ſhe is the Ornament as well as the Defence.

We are in a moſt particular manner affected with this ſingular Inſtance of Your Majeſty's Care of the Poor Clergy of our Church, and the bountiful Supply You have deſigned for them in applying that Branch of Your Revenue, which ariſeth out of the Tenths and Firſt-fruits to make better Proviſion for them, by which they will be both Enabled and Encouraged to Diſcharge the Duties Incumbent on them with more Credit as well as with more Succeſs.

May the Great God of Heaven and Earth, the King of Kings, multiply his Bleſſings on Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

May this Pious Charity return on Your Majeſty even in this Life an hundred-fold, in a long and happy Reign, and in all Bleſſings Spiritual and Temporal.

May it be the Glory of Your Reign to Compleat the full Settlement of our Holy Religion, and of every thing that may Unite and Strengthen us both at Home and Abroad.

May all Things, that can contribute to the perfecting and beautifying our Conſtitution, be by Your Majeſty's Piety and Wiſdom ſo firmly Eſtabliſhed, that we may be long happy in Your Flouriſhing Reign; and that when Your Majeſty is exalted to a more Glorious Crown, we may by Your Means have a Proteſtant Succeſſion ſecured to us, and our Poſterity after us.

Theſe are our conſtant Prayers to Almighty God which we promiſe, that by his Aſſiſtance, we will offer up daily to him: And we will perſwade all thoſe who are committed to our Care to join with us in them, and to continue ever Faithful and Loyal to Your Majeſty, againſt all Your Enemies, and againſt all Pretenders whatſoever.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Lisbon, June 22. N. S. The Marquis das Minas, Governor of the Province of Beira, having got together an Army of 15000 Portugueze at Almeida, marched from thence the 2d inſtant: Being come to Altea de Ponte, he halted there two days to refreſh his Troops, tired with the Marches they had made in this hot Seaſon; and being informed that the Inhabitants of the Country of Argentaon, the moſt fertile and richeſt Valley of the Kingdom of Caſtile, had put their beſt Effects into the City of Fuente Grinaldo, he detached 600 Horſe, and as many Granadiers, under the Command of the Conde de San Joanno, Lieut. Gen. with Orders to Attack it; which the Conde executed with ſo much Vigour and Reſolution, that notwithſtanding the Place was Fortified with Intrenchments and Palliſadoes, and Works caſt up in ſeveral of the Streets, and provided with a good Gariſon of Regular Troops and Militia, yet he entred it at the firſt Aſſault, and forced the Gariſon to Surrender at Diſcretion, and this with very little Loſs: The Plunder of the Place was given to the Soldiers, excepting what was ſecured in the Churches, the Marquis having given Orders that all there ſhould be left untouched. However, the Spoil was very conſiderable. Our Men took alſo there above 1000 Oxen and Cows, and other Cattel in great abundance. Don Franciſco Ronquillo, Governor of that Country for the Duke of Anjou, fled the Night before with 300 Horſe from Ciudad Rodrigo. The Marquis, after this Succeſs, continued his march to Tabiſcas, within a League of Puna Major; where underſtanding that the Enemy were marched from Caſtel-braneo towards the Frontiers of Caſtile, and that the Forces they had at Idanha, and other open Places, had rejoined their Army, he advanced towards Monſanto, a Caſtle which was Gariſoned by 120 French, who had Orders likewiſe to have retired, but had not time: Being come near the Place on the 9th inſtant, he marched that Night in order to Attack it, with 300 Foot and the Inhabitants of the Neighbouring Country, who killed all the French that happened to be without the Caſtle. The Enemy having notice of our Motions, came to the Relief of the Place; and on the 11th about 11 in the morning the Marquis, upon Intelligence, that they were within a few hours march of him, advanced immediately againſt them with the Horſe, having given orders for the Foot to follow with all Diligence. It grew towards Night before he came up with the Enemy, whom he immediately attacked with his Horſe, tho' the Foot had not yet had time to draw up in order of Battel. The Fight was very ſharp for the time it laſted. The Enemy were entirely routed; and when the Expreſs came away that brought the firſt Account of this Action, which was about 9 that Night, there were already above 300 of them reckoned among the Slain. They had about 150 Officers killed and taken Priſoners, among whom were 6 Captains of Horſe killed, one of them Son to the Marquis de la Rota, 6 Lieutenants, and ſeveral Perſons of Note. On our ſide there were but 50 Men killed and wounded, among the latter are a Captain, an Adjutant, and a Lieutenant. The Marquis das Minas expoſing his Perſon where there was moſt Danger, received ſeveral Wounds; The Condes de Aloor and Atalaya, Governors of Traos Montes and Minho, who were engaged in this Action with the Troops of thoſe Provinces, diſtinguiſhed themſelves; and in a word, both Officers and Soldiers gave Proofs of their Courage and Reſolution. The Enemy betook themſelves to the Mountains, whence ſome fled towards Salvaterra, and others to Sarca, by the way of Idanha de Velha; They endeavoured to deſtroy their Ammunition, but being cloſely purſued by our Men, they had not time, and left behind them Forty Barrels of Powder, a great quantity of Bullets and other Ammunition, a great number of Arms, moſt of their
